MERCEDES-BENZ B-CLASS F-CELL POWERS AHEAD OF ITS RIVALS IN LONDON FUTURE CAR CHALLENGE

The Mercedes-Benz B-Class F-CELL powered to victory in the inaugural Brighton to London Future Car Challenge in November, which showcased the new-energy and related technology currently being developed by the motor industry.

Beating competition from Honda and Toyota in the fuel cell category, the Mercedes-Benz consumed the least energy on the 57-mile route, as its compact, high-performance fuel cell system came to the fore. The car was driven into first place by Hilton Holloway, Associate Editor at Autocar magazine, who was accompanied by Wilfried Steffen, President & CEO Mercedes-Benz UK. The car consumed just 0.97kg of hydrogen during the trip, equivalent to 81 mpg.

The B-Class F-CELL was one of 64 vehicles that took part in the event, which was organised by The Royal Automobile Club to demonstrate the capability of new, low-energy cars including electric and hybrid vehicles. Cars powered by traditional combustion engines with CO<sub>2</sub> emissions up to 110g/km were also entered.

Already in small series production, the advanced B-Class produces zero local emissions apart from harmless water vapour. The B-Class F-CELL is powered by a gaseous hydrogen reaction with atmospheric oxygen that generates a current for its electric motor, which is capable of delivering 136hp, 290Nm of torque and performance that is superior to that of a 2.0-litre petrol engine.

The B-Class F-CELL uses a lithium-ion battery to boost power and recover braking energy. Advantages of lithium-ion battery technology include compact dimensions, high performance and greater recharge efficiency. The battery, along with all of the other fuel cell components, are housed in the sandwich floor construction, ensuring the B-Class F-CELL offers the same interior space as the conventional version.

“We were delighted to demonstrate the low energy usage of the B-Class F-CELL at such a high-profile event that highlighted future motoring technology and was attended by so many key people including politicians, representatives of industry groups and the car-buying public,” said Dr Reinhold Schamm, Manager, Fuel Cell & Battery Drive Development.

“Mercedes-Benz has been working on the deployment of fuel-cell drive in motor vehicles for over 15 years and has 180 registered patents in place in this field as well as more than 100 models being trialed around the world,” he added. “Delivery of around 200 B-Class F-CELLs commenced this month, with private and fleet drivers in Europe and the USA leasing the vehicles. As the infrastructure develops, this particular model will become a real, widespread option for emission-free motoring.

Beautiful cars from the world's leading car company

Mercedes-Benz can trace its history back to the creation of the very first automobile by Karl Benz in January 1886. Now it produces cars, buses, coaches and trucks sold in more than 129 countries. The word 'Mercedes' started as a brand of the Daimler-Benz (DMG) company in 1901.

It was first used by automobile retailer and racing enthusiast Emil Jellinek. He was racing DMG automobiles and had his daughter's name – Mercédès – painted on the side of his car for good luck. He later started to build dedicated sports cars for DMG using the name Mercedes 35hp.

The success of this series inspired more models using the same name. By 1926 the word Mercedes was linked with the name of the company's founder, and Mercedes-Benz was picked as the worldwide brand for its vehicles.

The A-Class

The A-Class sets the standards for safety, comfort and environmental protection

With more than 500,000 units produced within three and a half years, the second generation A-Class was among the bestsellers in the Mercedes-Benz passenger car range. Now the latest generation of this compact car is showing itself to be more youthful, attractive and environmentally compatible than ever before. This is ensured by a completely revised design, high-grade appointments and new technical developments which further improve safety, comfort and economy. A convenient ECO start-stop function which reduces urban petrol consumption of these BlueEFFICIENCY vehicles by up to nine per cent is now available for the high-volume A 150 and A 170 models, for example. For the three-door A 160 CDI, Mercedes-Benz has developed an optional BlueEFFICIENCY package which improves fuel consumption of the Coupé by up to 14 per cent, to 64.2 mpg. Independent experts have acknowledged these great advances in the environmental field with an internationally valid environmental certificate. The A-Class is the world's first compact car to achieve this accolade.

The B-Class

Sports Tourer in better shape than ever

With four engines and two trim levels to choose from selecting a B-Class has never been easier. The two trim levels are the SE and the Sport. The SE has a fixed panoramic glass sunroof as standard while the Sport model line gets the previously optional Sports Package as standard and includes 17" alloy wheels, Sports suspension, an aluminium look gearshift, brushed stainless steel sports pedals with black rubber studs, fabric/ARTICO upholstery and other trim features.

The restyled front end injects the B-Class with more poise and assurance than before. This is primarily down to the radiator grille with its three chromed cross fins painted in matt silver and the Mercedes star integrated into its centre. However, the more imposing appearance of the B-Class also stems from the new-look bumper – whose design emphasises the large air intake at the bottom – as well as the modified bonnet. This new design idiom makes the front look broad and, as a consequence, especially powerful, symbolising the sporty attributes of the B-Class even more clearly than before. The design at the sides seems more harmonious and elegant than before, because the exterior mirror housings, door handles and skirt panels are now painted to match the body colour on all model variants.

LOVE SPORT. LOVE LIFE. LOVE LA MANGA CLUB.

David Beckham and Robbie Williams soak up the sun by the pool with a host of Hollywood stars nearby, but this isn't Los Angeles, it's La Manga Club.

The exiled Brits have both used the luxurious Spanish resort for rest and relaxation, along with a cast of celebrities led by the likes of Matt Damon and John Malkovich, and it's not hard to see why.

The sumptuous five-star resort boasts more than 300 days of sunshine a year in which to enjoy its private secluded Mediterranean cove or lounge by numerous pools.

But anyone preferring an active holiday needn't worry as there is plenty to keep guests entertained.

The resort famously boasts three championship golf courses, with each offering a different challenge. These are complemented by the outstanding practice facilities which include an 80-bay driving range, putting and chipping greens, an 18-hole pitch-and-putt course and a state-of-the-art academy - just what you would expect from a former Spanish Open venue.

La Manga Club has also hosted high-profile events outside of golf, with the 28-court tennis centre - offering a variety of surfaces - having been the venue for Fed Cup and Davis Cup matches and Andy Murray and Tim Henman have regularly used the resort for training camps.

Andrew Castle and Jeremy Bates are also regular visitors, and guests aspiring to their high standards of play can take lessons with the experienced staff in the state-of-the-art academy.

The resort as well as golf and tennis, visitors to La Manga Club can try their hand at a plethora of activities including football, cricket, rugby, horse riding and water sports.

On the other hand, those who want to enjoy a more relaxing break can step inside the 2,000sqm Spa La Manga Club where 13 different treatment rooms and deluxe spa suites offer myriad treatment options.

Alongside these the facility boasts Jacuzzis, saunas, steam rooms, fun showers and a relaxation area, as well as a large gymnasium and fitness studio and 25-metre indoor swimming pool.

Parents might be thinking they'll have no time to relax with the kids in tow, but La Manga Club's wide range of activities more than caters for children in addition to a dedicated Junior Club, various academy programmes for sport and dance and the Funlandia programme which offers a host of free activities for children and families.

The resort also boasts a fantastic five-star hotel, serviced self-catering apartments, more than 20 restaurants and bars and its own secluded Mediterranean beach.

Whether you want to be up and active, relax and enjoy some pampering or holiday with the family, La Manga Club has it all.

The C-Class

Superior safety, comfort and agility

The design of the new C-Class is based on the modern Mercedes idiom, which reflects the technical superiority of automobiles bearing the star with taut lines and large, tranquil surfaces. The pronounced wedge-shape of the front-end serves to emphasise attributes such as agility and performance. For the first time in a Mercedes saloon, the radiator grille is used as a distinguishing feature to position the model variants more clearly. Three extended, horizontal louvres and a big centrally positioned Mercedes star characterise the SPORT model as a traditional design feature of sporty Mercedes models. Together with the sporty, high-quality appointments, this feature emphasises the youthful, agile appearance of this C-Class. This sporty presence is further enhanced with AMG body styling, which includes striking front and rear aprons plus side skirts.

The new generation C-Class Coupé

Superior safety, comfort and agility

On the outside, it's a dynamic coupé whose looks never fail to cause a stir. Inside, however, it's an oasis of calm, a place to relax and enjoy every bend and straight in total comfort. It's the new C-Class Coupé, a winning combination of luxury, personality and driving pleasure. With efficiently powerful engines, ECO start/stop, Agility Control suspension and standard-setting safety technology. The stance is low-slung; the face unmistakable, a large three-pointed star dominating its two-bar grille. The rear is compact, muscular and broad-shouldered. It's a coupé for those who don't stand still.

A NEW CONCEPT IN EXECUTIVE & CORPORATE TRAVEL

Mercedes-Benz BIOME: an Ultralight Vehicle at One with Nature

Stuttgart/Los Angeles. At this year's Los Angeles Design Challenge, the designers from the Mercedes-Benz Advanced Design Studios in Carlsbad, California, surprised everyone with a revolutionary vision. Taking their inspiration from nature, they designed a vehicle which is fully integrated into the ecosystem, from the moment of its creation right through to the end of its service life. The Mercedes-Benz BIOME grows in a completely organic environment from seeds sown in a nursery. Out on the road the car emits pure oxygen, and at the end of its lifespan it can be simply composted or used as building material.

"As the inventor of the motor car, we wanted to illustrate the vision of the perfect vehicle of the future, which is created and functions in complete symbiosis with nature. The Mercedes-Benz BIOME is a natural technology hybrid, and forms part of our earth's ecosystem. It grows and thrives like the leaves on a tree," according to Hubert Lee, Head of the Mercedes-Benz Advanced Design Studios in Carlsbad. This year the competition had called for the creation of a vision of a safe and comfortable 2+2 compact car featuring good handling and a first-class design, and weighing only 1,000 lbs (around 454 kg/kerb weight).

Mercedes-Benz symbiosis – a partnership with nature

The Mercedes-Benz BIOME symbiosis vehicle is made from an ultralight material called BioFibre and tips the scales at just 875.5 lbs (around 394 kg). This material is significantly lighter than metal or plastic, yet more robust than steel. BioFibre is grown from proprietary DNA in the Mercedes-Benz nursery, where it collects energy from the sun and stores it in a liquid chemical bond called BioNectar4534. As part of this process, the vehicle is created from two seeds: The interior of the BIOME grows from the DNA in the Mercedes star on the front of the vehicle, while the exterior grows from the star on the rear. >>

To accommodate specific customer requirements, the Mercedes star is genetically engineered in each case, and the vehicle “grows” when the genetic code is combined with the seed capsule. The wheels are grown from four separate seeds.

The Mercedes-Benz BIOME is powered by BioNectar4534, which is stored in the BioFibre material of the chassis, interior, and wheels. In addition, Mercedes-Benz has developed a technology to equip trees with special receptors which can collect the excess solar energy and turn it into BioNectar4534. This creates a direct link with nature’s energy sources and acts as an incentive to cover mobility energy requirements through more trees and at the same time maintain natural resources. Like plants, the Mercedes-Benz symbiosis vehicle also produces oxygen, thereby contributing to improving air quality. At the end of its service life, the Mercedes-Benz BIOME can be fully composted or used as building material. Thanks to the exclusive use of green technologies, the BIOME vehicle thus blends seamlessly into the ecosystem.

The CL-Class

A masterpiece among luxury coupés

Reaffirming its position as the ultimate luxury coupé, the Mercedes-Benz CL-Class offers more power and dynamic ability, new standards of luxury and, with a substantially enhanced specification, even better value for money than its predecessor.

The latest range combines all the comfort, quality, safety and technology of its S-Class stable mate together with stunning coupé styling to create the epitome of elegance in automotive engineering.

The CL-63 AMG

Ruling supreme

Several engines, one common theme – power. In the new CL 500 it's a V8, with a maximum torque of 530 Nm and output of 388 hp, that will get you from 0-62 mph in a mere 5.5 seconds, bringing with it improved emissions, consumption and acceleration.

The supreme power and performance at the core of the CL 600 is a result of our mighty 5.5 litre, V12 unit. Delivering 517 hp at a silky smooth 5,000 rpm, but with no turbo whine and barely a whisper of combustion noise.

Finally the CL 63 AMG, powered by our naturally aspirated V8 engine generates 525 hp and 630 Nm of torque. Here, you're the master of a formidably flexible powerhouse, one that gets you from 0-62 mph in a thrilling 4.6 seconds.

The CLS-Class

Sleek, elegant and refined

When the original CLS-Class launched in 2005, it was critically acclaimed by industry experts, journalists and motorists alike. Its unique fusion of dynamic coupé styling with four-door practicality, luxury and space broke new ground in automotive design. The all-new CLS-Class follows in its predecessor's pioneering footsteps, yet creates an identity entirely of its own. A triumph of bold, innovative styling, it is the first Mercedes-Benz model to showcase the distinctive new design language developed by Design Chief, Professor Gorden Wagener. This new design idiom is apparent in every surface and detail of the new CLS-Class – from the eye-catching air inlets to the flared wheel arches. The striking radiator grille, which echoes the new SLS AMG supercar, is a defining feature, as are the frameless side windows. Full LED headlamps with dynamic functionality will also be available – another world first from Mercedes-Benz. Inside the CLS, the quality of craftsmanship is instantly apparent with luxurious materials such as wood and leather throughout. Personalisation options are plentiful and the cabin's sumptuous appointments are complemented by the latest technology to ensure an exquisite driving experience.

New E-Class Saloon

One of life's pleasures

The E-Class Saloon boasts CO<sub>2</sub> emissions as low as 137g/km, and fuel consumption up to 53.3mpg, thanks to a range of highly efficient engines. These BlueEFFICIENCY models use innovative measures such as low rolling resistance tyres to minimise environmental impact.

A choice of DIRECT CONTROL or AIRMATIC suspension ensures a sublime ride quality, with both systems continuously adapting damping levels to suit the driving style and road conditions. Meanwhile, the ergonomic, intelligently laid-out interior is finished to exacting standards, using the finest materials. Heated front seats are one of the many standard features designed to maximise the driving experience.

Just like its predecessors, the E-Class Saloon is also packed with pioneering safety features. These include intelligent systems such as Attention Assist, a new Mercedes-Benz innovation which analyses driver behaviour and issues a warning if they show signs of fatigue. A pleasure, but not a guilty one.

The G-Class

For the high road, the low road or no road

The off-road capabilities of the G-Class have assumed near legendary status amongst 4X4 aficionados – and it's fully deserved. The permanent four-wheel drive, the 4ETS Electronic Traction System, the synchronised transfer case and the three 100% differential locks, all work together in perfect harmony to make the G-Class a match for the toughest terrain.

Fitted as standard, the innovative transfer case's off-road ratio is a key component. Activated at the touch of a switch, it generates formidable traction, enabling a stunning gradient-climbing capability of up to 80%.

Similarly, the differential locks can be activated individually and in a logically specified sequence – so you can adapt the vehicle perfectly to its surroundings. If a wheel loses traction, the power is redirected to the wheels offering the best grip. Even if only one wheel is providing grip, you will still make good headway.

The GL-Class

A commanding presence

Subtle curves combine with decidedly muscular dimensions to lend the GL-Class its distinctively powerful presence. Prominent shoulder lines accentuate the dynamism of the vehicle's impressive 5.09 metre-long body, thrusting from above the robust, self-assured width of the rear bumper to the short front body of its emphatic, unmistakably Mercedes-Benz bonnet. Whichever way you look at it, the exterior design of the new GL-Class delivers an unequivocal display of strength, reliability and inherent luxury.

Top performances and numerous highlights – The MercedesTrophy World Final 2010

Over 100 golfing enthusiasts and Mercedes-Benz customers from 43 different countries put their driving, pitching and putting skills to the test when they met for the MercedesTrophy World Final, which is traditionally staged in the premium automotive brand's home city. For three days, the 27 teams played the courses at the Bad Liebenzell Golf Club (September 25) and Schloss Nippenburg Golf Club.

Mercedes-Benz's involvement in amateur golf dates back to 1989. The MercedesTrophy is the brand's own series of amateur invitational tournaments for customers, with some 58,000 players competing in over 43 countries.

With a total of 204 points, the team from United Kingdom won the coveted Nations Cup. The second- and third-place positions, respectively, were claimed by Team China with 197 points and Team Korea with a total of 187 points.

In the individual scoring, the following players won the MercedesTrophy World Final: with 61 points, Giles Buchanan from South Africa achieved the best overall score; and with a showing of 77 points, Jong Suk Yo from Korea posted the best results in the class A. Paul Williams from the United Kingdom won the class B with 75 points, and Anthony Beal, also from the United Kingdom, grabbed top honours in the class C with 80 points. >>

Besides a Driving Experience event, which provided the MercedesTrophy finalists and their accompanying guests with the opportunity to try out a wide variety of current and innovative Mercedes-Benz models for themselves, the absolute highlight being though the sneak preview at the prize-giving ceremony of the new style icon from Mercedes-Benz: the new Mercedes-Benz CLS which is receiving its world premiere on September 30, 2010 at the Paris Motor Show.

A very special driving highlight was also on offer as well: under the professional tutelage of DTM drivers Bruno Spengler and Jamie Green the Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG all guests were able to acquaint themselves with the supercar in unforgettable fashion.

Professional support was also on hand on the golf course too. Professional golfer Anders Hansen played a special "nearest to the line" competition with every flight from Tee 1. With good sporting grace he was actually beaten hands down by two competitors who managed to place their golfballs on the line.

All players were able to receive valuable golfing tips in a golf clinic held by Robert Baker, AMG brand ambassador, and founder of Logical Golf.

Another special competition took place on the second day of the tournament. Waiting to greet the finalists at the 10th hole at the Golf Club Schloss Nippenburg was Marcus Allen, a Laureus Academy Member and former professional American football player. Marcus Allen pitted himself against the finalists in a "nearest to the pin" challenge, whilst at the same time as collecting donations for the Laureus Sport for Good Foundation. As one of its founding members, Mercedes-Benz does a great deal to support this foundation. In addition to the sums collected at the MercedesTrophy World Final, all of the donations made during the MercedesTrophy qualification tournaments staged around the world will benefit the Laureus Sport for Good Foundation. The Laureus Sport for Good Foundation is the official charity of the MercedesTrophy tournaments worldwide.

The new SLR Stirling Moss
Pure excitement and driving pleasure

Stuttgart – Mercedes-Benz and McLaren have added the crowning glory to the model family of their highly successful SLR super sports car with a new, uncompromisingly spectacular car. There is neither a roof nor a windscreen to separate the driver and passenger from the outside world; they enjoy unadulterated high-speed excitement with all the attributes of a speedster. The new SLR Stirling Moss is also characterised by the most sophisticated technology and a breathtaking design which reinterprets the SLR legend.

With 478 kW/650 hp the SLR Stirling Moss accelerates its V8 supercharged engine from standstill to 62 mph (100 km/h) in less than 3.5 seconds, and has a top speed of 217 mph (350 km/h) – no other series-production car is at the same time so open and so fast. This extreme concept makes the new high-performance sports car a legitimate bearer of the name of the British motor racing legend and Mille Miglia record-holder Stirling Moss, who drove the legendary Mercedes-Benz SLR racing cars from victory to victory during the 1950s. The exclusive SLR Stirling Moss rounds off the current SLR family and is limited to 75 units. It is priced at £632,557.

The R-Class

Luxury Tourer

The power, confidence and performance of the R-Class is expressed throughout the exterior with its taut arcs, steeply sloping rear and “sculpting” feature line running through both doors. While the striking AMG bodystyling – from the front apron to the rear – lends the car a bold, muscular look that exudes confidence and control. Alloy wheels further compliment the styling – 19” on R 500 L and Sport, and 18” on all other models as standard.

The well-balanced length-to-height ratio creates elegant, long and extended saloon proportions. But the overall impression is nevertheless powerful, due to the long wheelbase and short overhangs. Crisp, curving lines create a sense of dynamism and coiled energy.

From the rear, the car still retains the sense of assurance and assertiveness. The muscular proportions emphasise the width of the vehicle and reduce the impression of height, whilst the bulging wheel arches add to the overall feeling of concentrated power.

The S-Class

The SL-Class

A rich past, an exhilarating present

Admire the new SL-Class from any angle and its motorsport heritage is clear. The low, muscular stance. Powerdomes on the bonnet. Organic, gill-like trim panels on the front wings. The rear bumper with integral, trapezoid tailpipes. This is dynamic design at its very best.

Every detail suggests speed, power and agility – from the widened radiator grille with single louvre to the reshaped headlights and new exterior mirrors with arrow-shaped LED indicators.

For added impact, the V12 models feature trim elements in a brilliant matt silver finish. And the optional Sports package includes dark-tinted headlamps – for that little bit of extra attitude.

The SLK-Class

Simply irresistible

With its F1™-inspired lines and broad, muscular stance, the original SLK-Class took roadster design to a new level of beauty and dynamism. In this latest incarnation, we've incorporated a number of small but significant changes to lift it even higher.

For example, there are subtle adjustments to the car's nose and front bumper, plus arrow-shaped indicator lamps integrated into the side mirrors. Striking alloy wheels have been fitted and the racing-style tailpipes are now a distinctive trapezium shape. And we've added stylish dark-tinted tail lights and chrome-rimmed fog lamps.

THE NEW C-CLASS COUPÉ: MORE STYLE PER HOUR

Powerful. Agile. Efficient.

The engine line-up for the C-Class Coupé comprises two 4-cylinder in-line petrol and two diesel engines each, plus a new V6 petrol engine.

All are BlueEFFICIENCY-optimised, using direct injection and ECO start/stop technology to maximise efficiency without compromising performance. Automatic models feature enhanced 7G-Tronic Plus 7-speed transmission for quicker shift times and reduced fuel consumption.

Featuring AMG bodystyling and 18" AMG alloys as standard, the C-Class Coupé is all power, poise and purpose.

Just one look at the muscular front section sets the tone for the rest of the vehicle. A prominent bumper nestles beneath a distinctive coupé radiator grille with central star. This is flanked by dynamically styled Bi-xenon headlamps with LED running lights.

The profile is every bit as striking, with a sweeping roofline sitting some 17 mm lower than its Saloon counterpart. A distinctive beltline rises towards the rear where it makes a pronounced kink upwards at the C-pillar. Visually, this creates a unique feeling of tension - like a slingshot ready to release. This is further enhanced by the wedge-shaped profile, which suggests forward movement, even when the vehicle is stationary. As its looks suggest, the aerodynamic performance of the Coupé is outstanding. >>

MBFS UK MARKS 20 YEARS OF GROWTH WITH RECORD MARKET SHARE

Mercedes-Benz Financial Services UK Ltd (MBFS UK) is celebrating 20 years of growth with its highest-ever share of the UK vehicle finance market. It has also marked the anniversary by announcing a major move to new premises.

MBFS, which was launched on October 1st 1990 and currently employs almost 400 staff, is enjoying its most successful period to date. Based in Milton Keynes, the firm currently finances half of all Mercedes-Benz passenger car registrations in the UK and has an estimated 5.1 per cent share of the overall point of sale vehicle finance market – the highest in its 20-year history. Its wide-ranging finance, leasing and insurance services are only available through Mercedes-Benz retailers, and not only cover the company's cars – from the A-Class through to the new SLS AMG super sports car – but also trucks, buses, vans, smart models and Fuso commercial vehicles.

Part of Daimler Financial Services AG, which supports the sale of Mercedes-Benz automotive products in 40 countries, MBFS UK has a retail portfolio of more than 143,000 vehicles worth in excess of £2.2-billion. For the last three years, leading independent automotive research authority Sewells has ranked MBFS UK ahead of all other vehicle finance houses in terms of the relationship with its retailer network. The company also won The Sunday Times Customer Experience Award for Financial Services in 2007 and The Leadership Award for Excellence in Customer Experience in 2009.

MBFS UK Managing Director, Bob Middleton, said the anniversary was a time to look back on 20 years of growth and success and to look forward to a move to a new home within the headquarters of Mercedes-Benz UK, in Milton Keynes. "Over the past two decades MBFS UK has prospered and grown through its ability to offer a range of competitive products which match the changing needs of both customers and the Mercedes-Benz retailer network," said Mr Middleton.

"As well as our vehicle financing and leasing products, we now operate a sizeable insurance business with over 39,000 policies and our products have secured a 5 star Defaqto rating, placing them in the top 10 per cent of UK policies. We have also been able to develop tailored solutions for a wide range of professional bodies and sports affiliates including the PFA, PCA, The Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors and the Law Society of England and Wales.

"Late next year we plan to move our entire operation across Milton Keynes to sit alongside our colleagues at Mercedes-Benz UK, the first time in our 20-year history that we have consolidated all parts of the Mercedes-Benz group under one roof. It will mean an even closer relationship between both sides of the business with benefits for both our customers and the retail network," he adds.

LIVE FOR GREATNESS

EVERY ROLEX IS MADE FOR GREATNESS. THE SUBMARINER, INTRODUCED IN 1953, WAS THE FIRST WATCH TO BE WATER RESISTANT UP TO 100 METRES. IT WAS LATER STRENGTHENED BY ITS PATENTED TRIPLE-SEAL TRIPLOCK WINDING CROWN, MAKING IT CAPABLE OF WITHSTANDING DEPTHS OF UP TO 300 METRES.
